

2024 BAPPOA Lifeguard Games

The spirit of the Bay Area Public Pool Operators (BAPPOA) Lifeguard Games is to provide an opportunity for all lifeguards to compete and showcase their skills no matter what governing body certified them. In order to make the overall competition fair for all competitors, these events do not directly represent one particular lifeguard-training agency. Judging criteria reflects a combination of all rescue skills from different lifeguard training programs. Should you have any questions, please email Tara Deffley at tdeffley@cityofnapa.org or call 707-258-7837

2024 BAPPOA LIFEGUARD GAMES General Event Descriptions

Rescue Tube Relay: This event is competitive and fun! All four competitors from each team participate in this relay. Two competitors will be on each side of the pool. The event starts with the first competitor entering the water, swimming 25 yards to the opposite end of the pool and tagging the edge of the pool. The three additional competitors will do the same. The event ends when the final competitor touches the edge of the pool.

Backboard Event Description: This event simulates a spinal management scenario utilizing two competitors from the team at a time. All four competitors of each team will compete. The initial rescuer will need to identify the victim, activate the EAP, enter the water appropriately, perform an appropriate rescue, call for assistance, maintain inline stabilization, and work with one responding rescuer to place the victim on backboard safely and secure the victim onto a backboard. Straps will need to be checked and the victim safely removed from the water. The entire rescue will be timed.. Please Note: You may use any backboard procedure you wish to accomplish this. This event will be scored by meeting basic objectives. Time will stop when the backboard is placed past the pre-designated line.

Passive victim/CPR/AED/BVM event: This event will simulate all facets of an unresponsive victim from identification and removal to emergency care. It will involve all four competitors from each team. Part A: Initial/Primary rescuer will identify the victim (submersible mannequin), activate the EAP, enter the water safely, perform an appropriate rescue, call for assistance, check pulse and breathing in the water, and if more than 10 seconds for removal will secure rescue mask on victim and simulate rescue breaths until the victim can be placed on backboard. Secondary rescuer(s) will bring backboard and aid in removing the victim. Please Note: (Any backboard removal procedure can be used as long as objectives are met). Part B: Once the victim is removed, the scenario continues on a CPR manikin in which all rescuers will need to be an integral part. One rescuer will locate and get trauma bag with equipment, one rescuer will be responsible for managing crowd control, one rescuer maintains care based on cues given on victim condition. As each rescuer completes tasks assigned they can come in to assist primary care giver, but all team members must communicate appropriately to manage the situation. This event will have a multi layered scoring approach which factors in technical skill mastery both sequence of steps and compression rate timing and/breath timing, crowd mitigation, use of BVM/AED and overall management of scenario.

Active Victim Event Description*: This event will be based upon a typical active victim rescue. Rescuer will identify the victim, activate the EAP, enter the water safely, perform an appropriate rescue, and return the victim safely to the wall. The clock stops when the rescuer secures the victim to the wall.

Iron Guard Event (optional)*: This event will incorporate speed and stamina. Any competitors, victims, or judges who wish to participate may do so. The event is timed and runs as follows:

1. 25 meters freestyle to retrieve a brick
2. 25 meters swimming with the brick held above water. Brick will then be placed up on the wall.
3. 25 meters freestyle to other wall to retrieve a snyder manikin
4. 25 meters with the manikin keeping its airway above water

*Female competitors will have a choice of competing in the “female division” or the “open division” for the Active Victim Event and Iron Guard Event. Be sure to identify the division on the individual entry forms. If all 4 participants are female, they can compete as such and are NOT required to enter “open” division.
